2024 Washington State Knights of Columbus Convention in Yakima, May 17-19th.

Our Council 1643 was well represented at the 2024 Washington State Knights of Columbus Convention in Yakima, May 17-19th.

Brothers Tom Pursley who is also the State Faith director, Mike Colosi who is also the District 4 Deputy and Bob Adams and Ric Ordos as delegates.

The State officers were all elected for a second year. Many Brothers were recognized for good work and attaining certain goals for their council. Guest speakers included the Rector of the Bishop White Seminary and the KofC Western District Insurance Sales manager. Bishop Tyson said Mass on Friday and Sunday and there was an outside Eucharistic Procession after Mass on Friday.

There were no significant policy changes approved during the session. Friday's dinner included live music provided by a mainly Knights of Columbus band.

The Sacred Heart Monstrance was used in the temporary chapel at the convention center. The 2025 Convention will be at St. Martin's University sponsored by their Council.

Eucharistic Revival with Eucharistic Processions will become paramount for the near future. Every Council is required to have a Eucharistic Procession Chairman. Brother Tom Pursley has been appointed chair or the committee.
