St. George the Great Martyr Byzantine Catholic Church

Posted by Patrick Norton

5 September 1938 to 26 August 2025: 86 Years

CIX! With sadness and persevering hope, we want to share with you that Ed Sauley, our friend and brother in Christ, a founder of St George and OLPH Shrine, an active Knight of Columbus, long term supporter and board member of Holy Family School, protector of the preborn, and more importantly a beloved husband to Dani and a father and grandfather to many, fell asleep in the Lord this morning. Ed was a man of deep faith and great humor and will be missed by all! Please keep his family in your prayers. There will be a funeral in around 3 weeks. May his memory be eternal!

Family of the Month for February 2017:

Brother Ed and Dani Sauley

The Father Nicholas Rausch OSB Council 1643 Family of the month for February is Ed and Dani Sauley.

ED SAULEY FAMILY

General

Brother Ed Sauley is an Honorary Life Member in the Knights. Ed and Dani Sauley have been involved in Pro-Life efforts for over 40 years. Married for 55 years, they have six children and thirteen grandchildren. They moved to the Seattle area in 1967 and were parishioners at St. Thomas Parish, Riverton. Upon moving to Olympia in 1977 they became actively involved and over the years held leadership positions in different ministries at Sacred Heart parish. All six children are college graduates. Four of their boys have served honorably in the armed forces. Three continue to serve at this time.

Church

In 1975, Ed Sauley served in the ministry of "Master Catechist", commissioned by Archbishop Most Reverend Raymond Hunthausen to work in the formation of other catechists. This commission authorized Ed to carry on the ministry and at the same time challenged him to perform with care, joy, faith, and Eucharistic devotion. He has been instrumental in facilitating religious education classes and confirmation classes for youth & adult Catholics. Dani supported him with her time and talents in these efforts. In 1984/85, Ed and Dani completed the two year archdiocese and Seattle University course, "A Call to grow", which encouraged them to become more involved in church and community activities. The following shows that they took this training very seriously.

- Ed and Dani were very supportive and active at Holy Family School in Lacey, WA. In the late 70s and 80s. Dani was volunteer secretary and Ed served as a director. He has recently served as a H.F.S. board member.

- Ed helped establish Boy Scout Troop 007 at Lacey's Sacred Heart Parish and became the boy's first scoutmaster. He was merit badge counselor for seven badges and archdiocesan religious emblems award chairman for the area. He was responsible for many scouts receiving their religious awards. All of his sons are Eagle Scouts having benefited from life and religious training by their parents.
- In the early 90s, Ed was an executive member of the Seattle Archdiocesan Pastoral Council for the South Sound Deanery. Their input helped form the Mission Statement for the Archdiocese and provided valuable direction for the future.
- Ed and Dani helped in the development of the Byzantine Rite Catholic Church in Olympia. This was well known by their friend Archbishop Murphy who had Ed speak for him on pro-life issues. In 1995, Archbishop Murphy asked Ed to establish a respect life committee for the archdiocese. Ed became the first facilitator of the then newly established Archdiocesan Respect Life Committee.
- In 2000, Seattle Archbishop Brunette officially thanked Ed for all his work with the archdiocese.
- Ed and Dani continued their support of Olympia, WA's St. George Byzantine Catholic Church. They formally became Byzantine Catholics in 2000 as they continue their Pro-Life work.
- Dani is Sacred Heart Parish's representative to "Pregnancy Aid" which is located at St. Michael parish in Olympia, WA and is also the treasurer of that organization.
- Ed has been a past president of Sacred Heart Parish's Holy Name Society and Past President of the Parish Council.

Council

The Sauley family has long been the Council 1643 Pro Life Family, and Pro Life representatives to St Michael and St. George parishes. They were directly involved in the Knights of Columbus memorials to the "pre-born" at those locations.

At council meetings, Ed is a constantly reminding the membership of who they are and what they represent. Ed gives great credit to council 1643 and all Knights of Columbus for being deeply involved with right to life and for "walking the talk" of Pro Life.

Ed helps out at the Council level whenever possible, as a driver, a painter, and any other function that needs his assistance. He is a Jack of many trades and the council uses him accordingly. He has been on several committees to initiate or continue the good work of the Council 1643 in the Western Washington area.

Ed is a 4th Degree Knight, and has held the offices of Captain and Faithful Navigator. At a recent 4th Degree exemplification, he was selected as the Guest Honoree for 2011!

Ed and Dani Sauley at the 2011 4th Degree Exemplification

As Washington State Knights of the Columbus Pro-Life Co-Chairman (West Side), Ed's time is primarily spent representing the Knights as a beacon of hope in the promotion of the Gospel for Life. His activities and Dani's support carry him beyond the council chamber to focus on important Pro Life issues in the community and around the state.

Dani and Ed are shown below with Norma McCorvey at the Knights of Columbus sponsored Pro life conference, "It's About Life" in the Tri-Cities area of Southern Washington. This was a tremendous event that highlighted the pro life movement in still another part of Washington State. Ed is also editor of the Human Life of Thurston County News Letter an informative publication designed to highlight local Pro Life activities and God's plan for prospective parents.

Ed and Dani cooperatively established "Shelter Home for Pregnant Teens", a program initiated by the Knights of Columbus. They have hosted approximately 15 teenage girls for periods as long as 4 months, during which those girls felt safe and secure and ultimately carried their babies to birth. Under the guidance of Dani and Ed, many other teens have realized that there are alternatives to abortion and have chosen life. Many of the teens come from distressed families and yet, after living with the Sauleys and being assured of the value of life, many of them carried these lessons with them when they left and were welcomed back into their homes. This program is open to all, without religious prejudice of any kind, due to the benevolence and devotion to life of the Sauley family. The photograph below depicts the Sauleys offering aid and assistance to these young women in association with their Planned Parenthood Pregnancy Aid.

Dani and Ed with Norma McCorvey at the Knights of Columbus sponsored Pro life Conference "It's About Life" in the Tri-Cities.

Pregnancy Aid

Dani is treasurer of "Pregnancy Aid" (located at St Michael Parish in Olympia as well as being treasurer of Human Life of Thurston County and Show the Truth Washington State.

Both Ed and Dani have both been involved with pro life activities for over 40 years. Talking with Dani, one can tell in her voice that she is a firm advocate for life and has passed this morality down to all of their children. Dani used to pull her children out of school for Pro Life marches, showing the importance and priority of this mission in their lives. Their daughter, Danielle, got started early in life in this mission by distributing roses to State Legislators on the day of the Capitol march. After that, Danielle was hooked on life!

The Sauley children, Danielle, Edward III, Eric, Michael, Marcus, and David are spread all over the country. Every Sauley child's family is also involved with the Pro Life movement after having been given the gift of life and Catholic upbringing by the Sauley's.

Even the grandchildren are involved. Shown below are Sauley Grandchildren from Oregon being serenaded, outside of Planned Parenthood, by a very dear friend, Mel Paulson, RIP from Sacred Heart Parish in Lacey.

One grand-daughter is currently receiving a scholarship at a Catholic High School, in Portland, OR, for a first hand essay on "My Experience in the Pro Life Arena". Another granddaughter, along with her parents, was responsible for raising $6000.00 via a Knights of Columbus Baby Bottle Campaign at their parish in Louisiana. The Sauley family ethic and devotion is indeed spread widely!

Ed and his whole family work in support of the annual Mass for Life at St. Martin's Pavilion and the March for Life at our state's capitol in Olympia, WA, and are very much involved in the Knights of Columbus Pro-Life Luncheon at St. Michael Parish, in Olympia, following the march.

Ed is a leader with the "It's about Life Conference" which invites prominent speakers to promote the Gospel of Life. Ed was responsible for bringing "Priests for Life's" Fr. Frank Pavone to the "It's about Life Conference" in Puget Sound. Dani is shown below with Janet Moreno of "Priests for Life" and guest speaker, Fr Frank Pavone.

As a student of the use of visual images in bringing about cultural change, Ed and Dani were able to formally established "Show the Truth Washington State", a 501c3 nonprofit organization which travels to colleges and universities, witnessing to the horrors of abortion.

In the early 90s, Ed was actively involved with Operation Rescue in the Northeast, US. He is very proud of a letter from Archbishop Murphy thanking him for his efforts there. These activities prove that Ed, and his wife as well, were, and always have been, firm Pro Life advocates, carrying the banner for Knights all over the Nation.

Ed and Dani have also been successful in recruiting other Knights to this cause as well as finding hope in places one might have never imagined. In the following photograph, Dani is shown counseling two young Christians who accepted her advice, evidence that the book's cover doesn't tell the whole story or how good the story may turn out with the right authors guided by a good agent!

Dani just doing her thing!

Conclusion

Ed and Dani and their entire family have made "Pro Life" the principal focus of their life's work. As can be said of the Knights of Columbus, Ed and Dani do indeed "walk the talk". Ed and Dani have spent their lives training their own children and other people to respect life and have given countless, selfless hours to the concept that we should respect life at every stage of its existence. In these times where the value of life, from conception to natural death, is being questioned, it is difficult to see where any other life's vocation could be as important as that undertaken by the Sauley family. It is surely fitting and proper that the Knights of Columbus honor the Sauley family in selecting them as the National Knights of Columbus Family of the Year 2011.

Thank you, Brother Ed and Dani, for all that you continue to do, and congratulations on being selected as our Family of the Month for February.

Note: Recently, Ed is having a little heart problem and is very appreciative of all the prayers of his fellow Knights. He says because of them he is still looking at the right side of the grass! Thanks again!

I recently heard an interview with the former CEO of WD-40. He said, "Life is a gift. Don't leave it unwrapped." My dad definitely unwrapped his gift.

On behalf of my mom, Don, Cathy and Bobbie, I'd like to thank you all for coming to this celebration. As Paul explained to the people of Thessalonica, "We do not grieve like the rest of mankind, who have no hope. For we believe that Jesus died and rose again and so we believe that God will bring with Jesus those who have fallen asleep in him." Today is not about grief – for my dad is more alive today than he ever was on earth. Today is a celebration of the gift of Ron and how he impacted our lives.

Ron was born in San Jose November 5, 1943. He was just a little guy – had to stay in an incubator for a couple days. But from that point forward, life was lived full-tilt! He threw himself into everything he did. Playing baseball, playing high jinks with his cousins, teasing his sisters and brothers.

When he met my mom, he jumped in full-tilt too! They were really young! Only 16 and 18 when they got engaged. Only 17 and 19 when they got married. And 18 and 20 when they became parents! But they were right for each other – they worked hard on their marriage and family and lived life with gusto.

Dad tried out and was offered a spot playing for the Dodger's in the minor leagues. If only they paid then what they pay now – he would have jumped at the chance! Instead, he developed his craft designing the steel for high rises and bridges – multi-family dwellings, the World Trade Center, the Kingdome and even St. Peter's Hospital.

When he moved to Olympia 27 years ago, he joined the Knights of Columbus serving in almost every capacity for both this council and the state: Knight, Grand Knight, Faithful Navigator, Family and Live Chair. He truly had a heart for service.

Most of you know his two passions in life, besides my mother, were being Santa and working to stop abortions whenever possible. I believe both of these were grounded in the same passion – love for his fellow man.

As Santa, he held hundreds of kids each year – and for five minutes, they knew what unconditional love felt like. His smile and resounding Ho, Ho, Ho – were infectious. Kids loved him – and he loved them.

In his work with Right to Life, he raised money for 32 ultrasound machines. These were donated to crisis pregnancy centers where women can have free ultrasounds of their little ones. Statistically, over 90% of women who have an ultrasound choose life. This was no small effort. He literally made thousands of phone calls asking for money – organized fundraisers – handled donation paperwork with bureaucrats. One by one, another machine was placed. Over the last 20 years, over 1.7 million women have received a free ultrasound because of his work. This means 1.5 million children were saved – and 2.5 - 3 million parents did not go through the trauma that is abortion.

But he didn't stop with his work with the pre-born. He lovingly sat with the mothers and fathers that had experienced abortion and helped them navigate the pain. He knew that he was only one person – but that one person can make a difference when they open the present of their lives and fully live.

But more than the things he did for others, it was what he did for me as my dad that changed my world.

In Genesis 18:19, God says, "For I have chosen him, so he will direct his children and his household after him to keep the way of the Lord by doing what is right and just."

I can honestly say, my dad was chosen by God to be my earthly father – to direct me and my siblings to keep the way of the Lord by doing what is right and just. We were taught right and wrong – just and unjust. Sometimes with love – sometimes with a swat or an “I’m disappointed” – but I can honestly say all four of us have a deep sense of what is honest, good, true and lovely.

In Lamentations, we are told to, “Arise, cry out in the night, as the watches of the night begin; pour out your heart to the Lord. Lift up your hands to him for the lives of your children.” I can’t begin to count the number of times my dad prayed for each of the four of us kids. My dad often went to Adoration – and spent an hour in silent prayer in a holy place. When he was able, he did this weekly. During that time, he specifically prayed for mom, each of the four of us: me, Cathy, Don and Bobbie, and each of our children. My dad believed in prayer. He believed that God could provide the blessings that he could not. That when he failed, God would pick up the pieces and still bless his progeny if he asked. So, he did – he routinely brought each of us before the Throne of Grace and asked his Savior to bless us.

Isaiah 38:19 says, “The living, the living they praise you, as I am doing today; parents tell their children about your faithfulness.” This was also true of dad. He praised God and gave Him glory for the good things in his life. He modeled faithfulness to us – took us to church – taught us to pray – let us know that when the world falls apart, and it will, Jesus is still there. He is forever faithful.

As a 62-year-old woman, I’ve seen my world fall apart. I experienced the loss of divorce – I felt the loss of a child – lost friends – and now, lost my dad... but I can testify that Jesus is always there. Because of Jesus, I was given a gift of a loving faithful husband, a beautiful loving daughter, a mom who is truly my best friend. But the glory is all Jesus’ and I learned that from my dad.

So, you, see? My dad was a reflection – a life lesson – a guide – leading me to the Father. Reflecting the Father’s light into my life. Yep – sometimes he messed up. And frankly, because I held Dad so close to my heart, it hurt terribly when he sinned. But overall, I couldn’t have asked for a better man to be my example. I loved him.

Thank you, again, for coming. Remember, your life is a gift. Don’t leave this earth without unwrapping it.
